Version B3-19-15

PLEASE READ THESE PRODUCT TERMS AND CONDITIONS CAREFULLY BEFORE USING ANY DIGITALGLOBE PRODUCTS.

Your Order Quote and Statement of Work, if applicable, together with these Product Terms and Conditions are, collectively, your agreement for the license or purchase of DigitalGlobe products and services (the "Agreement"). This Agreement constitutes a legally binding contract between DigitalGlobe, Inc., a Delaware corporation with offices located at 1601 Dry Creek Drive, Suite 260, Longmont, Colorado 80301 USA ("DigitalGlobe"), and Customer, as identified in the applicable Order Quote.

By signing or otherwise indicating acceptance of an Order Quote referencing these Product Terms and Conditions or downloading, accessing or using any DigitalGlobe product or service, Customer is accepting and agreeing to be bound by this Agreement. If you are entering into this Agreement on behalf of a company or other legal entity, you represent that you have the authority to bind that entity to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. If you do not agree to the terms on the Order Quote or these Product Terms and Conditions, do not sign or otherwise accept an Order Quote and do not download, access or use any DigitalGlobe product or service.

If Customer has an existing formal written agreement with DigitalGlobe governing the products or services provided by DigitalGlobe in Customer's Order Quote, the terms in that agreement will supersede any contrary terms in these Product Terms and Conditions. Further, to the extent that any license terms embedded in a product are not consistent with this Agreement, the terms in this Agreement will supersede any contrary terms in any embedded text.

1. DEFINITIONS. Capitalized terms used in this Agreement are defined in Exhibit B or the End User License Agreement.
2. ORDER PROCESSING.
 - 2.1 ORDER FORMS. Customer may order Products by completing an order form via the ordering process designated by DigitalGlobe from time to time. Following submission of an order form, DigitalGlobe will review the request and prepare an Order Quote.
 - 2.2 ORDER QUOTE. The Order Quote sets forth those Products DigitalGlobe offers to license or sell to Customer, the license type, the number of Authorized Users (if applicable) and the license fee as well as other information relating to Customer's order. Customer accepts an Order Quote by signing or otherwise indicating acceptance of an Order Quote (such as an email accepting the terms of the Order Quote) or by downloading, accessing or using any Product set forth on the Order Quote. Each Order Quote expires five (5) calendar days following the Quote Date; however, DigitalGlobe, in its sole discretion, may extend the expiration date of any Order Quote. If Customer accepts an Order Quote following the expiration date, that Order Quote will be effective and form part of the Agreement unless DigitalGlobe notifies Customer within five (5) calendar days that the Order Quote is rejected. Following acceptance by Customer of an Order Quote, Customer may only make changes to an Order Quote as set forth in Article 5 below. If any terms and conditions in an Order Quote are inconsistent with these Product Terms and Conditions, the terms and conditions in the Order Quote will govern. DigitalGlobe rejects any additional or inconsistent terms that may be included on Customer's purchase orders or otherwise submitted or referenced by Customer.
3. PRODUCTS. Customer is responsible for determining which Products best meet its needs. DigitalGlobe reserves the right to discontinue developing, producing, licensing or distributing any of the Products and to modify, replace or add to the Products at its discretion at any time.
 - 3.1 PRODUCT LICENSES. Products are licensed and not sold under this Agreement. With respect to each Product licensed by Customer, the applicable license type is set forth on the corresponding Order Quote.

 - (b) Base, Group, Enterprise and Enterprise Premium Licenses. Products licensed under a Base, Group, Enterprise or Enterprise Premium license are subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the End User License Agreement, available at <https://www.digitalglobe.com/terms-use>. If any terms and conditions set forth in the End User License Agreement are inconsistent with this Agreement, the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement will govern.

Customer is responsible for all transportation fees as well as customs clearance in the destination country and any customs fees, duties and taxes; these fees, duties and taxes are not included in the Fees for the Products. Title to the Products (subject to the license rights granted to Customer) will pass to Customer at the port of entry of the destination country, prior to customs clearance.
- (b) Electronic Delivery. DigitalGlobe will notify Customer by email when the applicable Products are available for download by Customer from the designated site. That email will also include instructions on how to download the Products. Products made available to Customer via Electronic Delivery are deemed to be delivered when the notification email is sent by DigitalGlobe. Customer will have fourteen (14) days from the date of this notification to download the Products from the designated site, after which the Products will be removed from the site.
- (i) Extension Requests. During the original 14-day availability window, Customer may request one (1) extension of the time Products are available on the designated site free of charge. If Customer needs additional time to download the Products following the expiration of this extension, Customer must make an "Exact Copy Request" as described in Section 4.2(b)(ii) below.
- (ii) Exact Copy Request. If Customer fails to download the Products while they are available on the designated site, Customer may request that an exact copy of the Products be provided via Electronic Delivery, DVD or external hard drive. A processing fee will apply. Delivery of the exact copy is subject to standard delivery times as described in Section 4.1 above.
- (iii) Errors. If Customer is unable to download the Products from the designated site due to an error by DigitalGlobe, Customer must notify DigitalGlobe during the initial 14-day period or extension and provide DigitalGlobe with a description of the error and the orders affected. If DigitalGlobe determines that the error was caused by DigitalGlobe, DigitalGlobe will, at its option, either repost the affected Products to the site or deliver the Products to Customer via DVD or external hard drive, each at no additional cost to Customer.
- (c) Digital Globe Platform. The Subscription Services are made available to Customer and its Authorized Users online via the DigitalGlobe Platform. - (ii) Restrictions on Use. Customer is responsible for Authorized Users' access and use of the DigitalGlobe Platform and compliance with this Agreement. Customer will use commercially reasonable efforts to prevent unauthorized access to and use of the DigitalGlobe Platform and will notify DigitalGlobe promptly of any unauthorized use of which it is aware.
- (iii) Disabling Devices. Customer will use commercially reasonable efforts, including using a Virus detection/scanning program, in order to remove any Disabling Devices from its systems that may be transmitted to or otherwise present any harm to DigitalGlobe's systems. If Customer determines that a Disabling Device has been transmitted to the systems or computers of DigitalGlobe, Customer will notify DigitalGlobe promptly of the transmission and the nature of the Virus or other device. DigitalGlobe may disable Customer's access to the DigitalGlobe Platform and other DigitalGlobe computing systems and/or networks to protect DigitalGlobe's computing systems and/or networks from a Disabling Device or if Customer breaches any of the security measures established by DigitalGlobe, including access or attempted access to the DigitalGlobe Platform by any unauthorized person. DigitalGlobe will notify Customer if it disables Customer's access as soon as reasonably possible thereafter.
